

Just a word or two

ABOUT SOME OF THE HAPPENINGS IN AND AROUND THE CITY OF COLUMBUS.

WORLD ENTERED CITY YESTERDAY.

T. A. Reid of Everett was arrested last week on the charge of unlawfully carrying the rifle permit. DAYTON STUDIOS REMODELED.

George Rogers of Silver City has had one of the most photographic studios in the southwest, having spent several thousand dollars in equipping the building and equipment.

WILL LEAVE FOR SHAKER.

De Robert Marshall will go to the immediate future before the Tumacacori oil fields of Mexico. He says the times in Del Norte are too turbulent and that he is going to seek quiet in the oil fields.

DODGE GOES UP IN SMOKE.

A garage containing an almost new Dodge automobile, adjoining the home of Herman Price on the west side, was burned to the ground early Wednesday morning. Citizens and camp were awakened by the continuous shooting of firearms led by Nightwatchman Dennis. At one time the Price home was in danger but the volunteer fire department assisted by a chemical engine from Camp Furlong soon had the flames extinguished.

"HIL" AND "TAL."

"Hil" Berry, the next treasurer of Luna county, and Assessors "Tal" Lester, who is not going to change his title for two years, slipped into Columbus Tuesday night and stopped right out again. They had been conversing nearby ramins and settling their own and other Democratic candidates' majorities. Hil and Tal are great friends and this friendship will continue for some years at least as their offices will only a few feet distant from each other.

CARNIVAL COMES AND GOES.

Pete's four-car carnival wound up with three big nights and left town early Sunday morning, reporting that the sheriff didn't close them up. As it was the owner of the Texas Circus sold the Overland Six to the Columbus Steam Laundry at half price to get out of town Saturday night the bid was off at the carnival and instead of paying the wheel spinners paid off in cash; punch boards likewise. Everybody was satisfied except the losers.

On Thursday, November 6th, our 2nd Retail to Sale begins—last 3 days. Columbus Drug Co.

JACK SAYER COMING FAST.

If any democrat ever thought for a moment that Jack Sayer was a weak candidate because of the expense he had made by enforcing the law and counting early right, they now realize their mistake. As the campaign nears its end everybody admits that Jack is running like a house afire. He is not only making votes for himself but his opponent is making votes for him also. If the campaign would last another month Mr. Greenwood, the conceded head of the ticket, would have to sink to his laurels.

STATE WONT BUY CITY BONDS.

Major Blair and A. Fredericksen returned from Santa Fe Tuesday where they had journeyed in a vain attempt to sell Columbus water bonds to the State of New Mexico. According to the mayor all the details for a sale had been satisfactorily arranged with the minor state officials and everything was fine until they met Governor Laramore who turned the proposition down and came to conflicting figures regarding valuations in Columbus. The mayor has not given up all hope, however, and says negotiations are still pending.

HUNTER ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.

An unknown hunter received treatment at Pinos Altos and was removed to Fort Bayard for further treatment this week. He had shot himself in the leg. It is estimated that there are already 500 hunters in the mountains.

POSTMASTER DROPS DEAD.

William Henry Long, for thirty years assistant postmaster at Albuquerque, dropped dead yesterday as he was leaving his home for his office.

PROPOSED PARISHIONER TO BE KIDS HAVE SPURRED PARENTS

Miss Dennis, Roswell, proposed to serve from two to three years in the parochial school, will give a conditional pardon to Columbus parents in the mean time.

The proposed child of parochial school, Miss Dennis, had a license to drive, and that she was arrested at this time the church officials would be surprised. The parochial was imprisoned when she was found driving.

The parochial was sentenced to a year's probation of permanent imprisonment who said his reputation prior to his enrollment had been that of a law-abiding citizen and that he had a wife and family depending upon him for support. The sentence included that Dennis also had received him.

Dennis was found guilty of injury of radio and was sentenced to serve from two to three years in the penitentiary. Sentence pronounced April 12.

JOHNSON IN SILVER CITY FOR GO WITH SPEEDBALL HAYDEN

Eddie Johnson, pitcher, of Puerto, Colo., arrived in Silver City last week and will put in the time between now and October 20 training for his contact with Speedball Hayden.

Johnson had a real fight recently and carries scars to prove that he was cut up in a recent holdup of which he is the hero. Several holdups have landed him some time out in Pueblo and, knowing who he was, Johnson refused to stick up his hands and one of the men made a pass at him with a knife. About that time Johnson landed in jail for the count but the other man succeeded in making some bad cuts.

No knives, swords or firearms were cut and his hand and arm is as good as ever.

Good preliminaries are being arranged for. Marshall Jackson says there will not only be a good audience in Silver City but that eight fans from the other nearby towns are making arrangements to attend. Joe Clark is booking riders in his new Studsucker-Biz. Other boxing time, to the number of 40 or more, are making arrangements to attend what will probably be the best fight in this section until Lieutenant White holds his Thanksgiving Day carnival.

MARY TAYLOR WINS PRIZE.

Mary G. Taylor, although it is her first year in the public schools, won first prize for an elaborate map of the Sunshine State. It is a question whether Mary or her parents feel the best over last success.
